A Tragic Death in Norwich-Sanitary Con ditions in South Norwalk-Happy New Britain Children-Beer Spilled-A Missing Man-Grand Lodge Meeting of

Norwich, Aug. 30 .- John Casaldy aged twenty-five, an employe of the Hopkins & Allen company, manufac turers of firearms here, was killed this morning by William H. Dawsett, in spector of arms at the factory. The two were at work in the factory shoot ing gallery testing rifles. Cassidy was at the target end of the gallery keeping tally and marking the target.

There is a niche here where the attendant steps when the rifles are being fired to be out of range of the bullets. Cassidy was standing here wait ing for another shot and as the interval was so long between reports he thought Dawsett had finished firing. He stepped out just in time to receive a shot in the back, rendering him unconscious. As he fell to the floor Dawsett ran to his assistance, but he had barely reached him when Cassidy gasped for breath and died. Dawsett is exoner ated, as the affair was undoubtedly entirely accidental. He is nearly mad with grief. Cassidy was unmarried.

A SANITARY CRUSADE. South Norwalk, Aug. 30 .- Health Officer Tracey, who has been inspecting the sanitary conditions of the numerous dairies in town, has nearly completed his work. He reports that he found those inspected thus far in excellent conditions with few exceptions,

As the inspection proceeds all nuisances are ordered abolished and the place is examined again to ascertain whether the health officer's orders are obeyed. There is quite a crusade along sanitary lines in these parts.

CHILDREN'S DAY IN NEW BRIT-AIN.

New Britain, Aug. 30.-Fifteen hunfired of New Britain's children enjoyed a free outing at Cook's grove to-day. They were carried there free of charge by the Central Electric railroad and the privileges of the grove were given them by Mr. Cook, the proprietor. Funds for their feeding was freely subscribed by citizens of this city. Several hundred joined the assemblage from Berlin and Plainville and taken altogether the day was a red letter one in the memories of the youth of this section.

DOWNFALL IN BEER. Hartford, Aug. 30 .- Deputy Sheriff John Foote spilled seventeen kegs of beer at police headquarters this morning. The beer was selzed from delivery wagons of the Herald Capitol Brewery company on the 20th inst. and at the hearing before Justice J. P. Tuttle held Wednesday no one appeared to claim the beer.

Justice Tuttle in consequence issued an order for its destruction. The kegs will be returned to the brewing com-

Alonzo C. Bray, years ago a Meriden resident, died on Thursday at Patchogue, L. I., of locomotor ataxia. Years ago he received $20,000 in damages from the New York Central railroad for in-Suries received in a smash-up in the runnel. Mr. Bray, when he resided in Mer-iden, was employed in the printing establishment of F. E. Hinman, and assisted at one time, about 1853, in editing a paper conducted by O. H. Platt, now United States senator. The departed was married to a daughter of Pilgrim Atkins of Meriden and his wife survives him. There are also other relatives in that city. When Mr. Bray left Meriden, over thirty years ago, he began the manufacture of dress shirts in New York city
